

WINTON WYOMING PASTORAL REGION 2017-18 FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION

Purpose:

This financial aid application is intended to aid families in the Winton Wyoming Pastoral Region with students currently attending the parish school of John Paul II. The grant is awarded yearly, with applicants considered each year based on that year's applications.

Eligibility:

Financial aid will be awarded to families who are members of one the parishes in the Winton Wyoming Pastoral Region (Our Lady of the Rosary, St. James of the Valley, or St. Matthias the Apostle), have children attending the parish school of John Paul II, and have true financial need.

Qualified candidates should meet the following requirements:

- Be enrolled at John Paul II and in good standing.
- Must be eligible for in-parish tuition and receiving the parish subsidy.
- Be of good character and a solid member of the parish and the community at-large.
- Demonstrate compassion and a dedication through their acts of kindness and volunteerism.
- Have true financial need.

Applying for the award:

*Families must complete the FACTS financial aid application through John Paul II and students must complete the below application form and short answer questions in which they provide concrete examples from their experiences that demonstrate their commitment to serve as volunteers in the parish and/or community.

Other Details:

The financial aid award will be dispersed directly to John Paul II in the families' name. Families will be notified of the parish financial aid award each year.

Timetable: Application Deadlines: The FACTS application deadline is determined by JP II. The FACTS deadline for grants for the 2017-18 school year is January 31, 2017. The parish deadline is February 15, 2017.
